Ameer Wakil, Chief Executive Officer comments, “Achieving the number one position in all of the country is truly an honour, especially from such a prestigious organization such as Spas of America. We are fortunate to have a beautiful physical space, however of equal importance, we have the privilege of having a terrific leader, Jennifer Hipwell our Spa Director, along with her amazing, caring and compassionate team is truly what makes us number one in Canada. We will never rest on our laurels, we will continue to improve and strive to maintain this position as our loyal customers only deserve the best.”

Spa Director, Jennifer Hipwell states, “We are very honored and excited to be ranked #1 in Canada. At White Oaks, we are passionate about providing our guests with the absolute best treatments, service and skin care lines possible. We continually research, compare and study the industry to bring on the newest and most effective results driven solutions and products. But overall, it’s not just about the treatments, or the products we use or retail we bring in but more importantly, it’s about crafting an experience for each individual guest. We do that through our environment certainly but at White Oaks, it’s the genuine service excellence. The people that work at White Oaks, and definitely within the spa, truly want to be here and are dedicated to ensuring you leave with more than dewy skin or relaxed muscles.”
