5 DAYS / $269 (Includes 24hr Access to Office Space)

“We were not sure there would be a market for this type of offering here in Niagara, so we polled our local guests and club members before designing this program. The response was very positive with many really great suggestions which we have taken into consideration like access to the club and dining credits included.” says Traci Luongo, Director of Conference Services.

“The Work from Hotel program makes sense in these new times we find ourselves in right now. Working from home of course has advantages but there are elements to many roles that can be difficult to perform well. Interviews, important calls and zoom meetings are sometimes a challenge for those with other people living in their home. With so many at home all at once, our usual internet is under strain as so many devices are in play at one time. After months of isolation from our work places, it can be nice to have a change of scenery for a day and a quiet dedicated space to hunker down and work on something with complete focus. We hope that this new program offers that option to those in Niagara working from home now.” stated Julie Lepp, Director of Marketing
